

STEYN STANDS OUT FOR WAR.

Boers Are Fighting with Confidence, He Declares.

NO NEED TO SURRENDER.

British Statesman Admits Ex-President Controls the Situation.

AMSTERDAM, March 24.—Abraham Fischer, the Boer delegate, in an interview today gives a variety of reasons why the Boers in the field should be in a mood to continue the war, rather than accept terms less advantageous than those previously demanded.

The latest report from President Steyn, received under date of Feb. 15, says:

"Last year we fought hopefully; now we are fighting with confidence, not to the bitter end, but to a happy end."

The Boer forces have plenty of everything except clothing.

WOLFE HOEK, Orange River Colony, Monday, March 24.—The train having on board Acting President Schalk-Burger and his party passed this place on its way to Kroonstad yesterday.

The Transvaal Government officials were accompanied by Capt. Marker, Lord Kitchener's aide-de-camp, and five other members of the staff of the British Commander-in-Chief in South Africa.

The impression here is that the Transvaal favor a general surrender of the Boer forces.

POWER OF PEACE IN STEYN'S HANDS.

LONDON, March 25.—Sir George Goldie, vice-president of the Royal Geographical Society and founder of Nigeria, who has just returned from a thorough investigation of South Africa, where he conferred with Lord Milner, Lord Kitchener, Cecil Rhodes, Sir Walter Hely-Hutchinson, the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, and numbers of other influential men, brings home rather pessimistic ideas of the general situation from a British point of view.

The conditions in Cape Colony he regards as especially dangerous, and he considers that the most serious British difficulties will be encountered there in the future, as at present.

Sir George, while recognizing the possible importance of ending President Schalk-Burger's step, said he was convinced that the question of peace or war rests in the hands of President Steyn, and that Mr. Kruger and the other Boers in Europe no longer represent Boer opinion.

The real difficulty in the path of peace he believes is the question of granting amnesty to the Cape and Natal rebels.

Sir George advocates granting amnesty to the rebels, but he insists that every one must be disfranchised for life.

He estimates that 100,000 armed men will be needed in South Africa for some years after the conclusion of peace.

Sir George failed to meet any Boers who yet recognized that they had been finally beaten.

Replying to a question in the House of Commons today, the Government leader, A. J. Balfour, said His Majesty's Government had no further information in regard to the mission of Mr. Schalk-Burger.

WANTS SPEAKER CENSURED.

John Redmond Gives Notice of Motion in Parliament.

LONDON, March 25.—John Redmond, the leader of the Irish Nationalists, gave notice in the House of Commons today of a motion equivalent to a vote of censure on the Speaker, William Court Gully.

The Speaker is blamed for not having made the Colonial Secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, withdraw his remark, "the honorable gentleman is a good judge of traitors," addressed to John Dillon in the House March 20, which led to Mr. Dillon reporting that Mr. Chamberlain was a "liar."

EIGHT BURIED IN CAVE-IN.

Four Men Taken Out Fatally Injured, Others Still Under Sand.

CLEVELAND, March 24.—Eight men were buried beneath a huge pile of sand at the works of the Cleveland Gas Light Company on Main street this afternoon.

Four of the men were subsequently taken out. It is thought that they are fatally injured.

At least four more are still under the dirt.

A Story Briefly Told.

Put a Want in The World on Sunday. Get what is wanted on Monday.

M'AUILLIFFE REWARD DOUBLED!

The First $1,000.

The World will pay $1,000 to the man who personated James McAuliffe in the West Fifty-fourth street court on the morning of Feb. 16 last, he to establish that fact, or to any person or persons who shall produce the man who personated McAuliffe at the address and time mentioned and prove that he is the man who personated McAuliffe.

The World will further guarantee to such "dummy" absolute protection and immunity from arrest, prosecution or persecution. The World has the assurance of District Attorney Jerome that this man shall not be prosecuted nor molested if he comes forward and tells the truth.

The Second $1,000.

The World will pay $1,000 more to the person or persons who shall furnish it with information that shall lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons guilty of the murder of James McAuliffe, who was found dying in front of No. 863 Sixth avenue on Sunday morning, Feb. 16, 1902.

STRATEGY AND TROLLEY GET RHINOCEROS TO ZOO.

Hungry Animal Waddles from Cage to Cage Like Tame Cow—Has Heated Express Car.

The select few who gathered on the British steamship Afridi's deck this morning to see the latest instalment of animals for the New York Zoological Park unfolded witnessed a novel sight.

It was probably the first time in the history of New York that a rhinoceros has been seen following a man across a ship's deck like a tame cow following a farmer across a meadow.

R. L. Dittmars, who has charge of the animals at the Zoo, was at the dock early with a corps of animal keepers and a truck load of cages for the removal of the animals.

The largest cage of all, a big padded affair, covered with tarpaulin to keep out the chill New York air in transit, was hoisted on deck for the rhinoceros.

Then came the question of how to get the 1,200-pound animal from the crate in which he crossed the sea to the new quarters.

Capt. Godding, at Mr. Dittmars's suggestion, had prepared for the job by letting the rhinoceros go without his supper last night. When all was ready this morning a section of the woodwork was knocked out around the deck-house door, and Mr. Dittmars, taking a bunch of clover hay, held it out to the animal.

The rhinoceros started for it eagerly and followed the animal man across the deck like a pet donkey after a bunch of carrots.

The big crate was hoisted over the side and carted away and the rhinoceros never stopped eating. In New York the rhinoceros, the eighteen-foot python and a blue-gray lemur were loaded on a Metropolitan Express electric car and so carried up to Fordham, where they were taken on trucks to the Zoo.

The object of sending them by this route was to avoid exposing the tropical animals to the chill air. The express car, being heated by electricity, could be kept at the proper temperature.

The resolution came as a surprise, as it had not been under consideration in advance as a part of the committee's business. There was no adverse discussion, however, and after a general and informal expression of approval Mr. Cutting put the resolution and it was unanimously adopted.

The Citizens' Union, as a political organization, wields a most potent influence in the case of good government. Its strength was fully tested in the municipal election of 1901 with four candidates in the field, when its candidate, Seth Low, polled 151,000 votes against the regular party candidates.

Among the most prominent members of the organization are R. Fulton Cutting, Robert C. Ogden, I. N. Seligman, William J. Schieffelin, Everett P. Wheeler, Willis L. Ogden, J. Kennedy Tod, James B. Reynolds, Jacob H. Schiff, E. R. L. Gould, R. W. De Forest, William M. Taussig, George K. Clark, Ludwig Nielsen and Francis C. Huntington.

PEACEMAKER DIES.

Policeman Dresser Had Been Shot and Punished by Fighters.

Adam Dresser, the special policeman who acted as peacemaker when he found two men fighting in Throop avenue, Williamsburg, last Sunday, died this morning in the Williamsburg Hospital.

George H. Weaver, a bartender, of No. 178 Sumnerville street, Borough of Queens, charged with shooting the peacemaker, and Alexander Hanson, charged with punching him, each admitted to bail in $1,000, have been rearrested and will be held without bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

TRYING TO GET MURPHY MEN OUT.

DETECTIVE SERGEANTS' CASE BEFORE COURT.

Arguments Made To-Day, but Justice Gildersleeve Reserves Decision.

The fate of Col. Murphy's ninety-eight detective-sergeants, appointed on All Pools' Day a year ago, is in the hands of Justice Gildersleeve, of the Supreme Court. Justice Gildersleeve heard argument to-day on a case brought to test the validity of their sudden promotion from the ranks of $1,000 patrolmen to that of detective-sergeants at $2,000 without civil-service examination.

Detective-Sergeant Latte brought the test suit in the form of proceedings to mandamus. Police Commissioner Partridge and the Municipal Civil-Service Commissioners to certify his voucher for January's salary.

Decision was reserved.

BOY A CIGARETTE VICTIM.

Taken from Mount Loretta Home to Inmate Ward of Almshouse.

NEW YORK, S. L. March 25.—A victim of cigarettes, Bert Glickman, nine years old, was removed from the Mount Loretta Home to-day to the inmate ward at Richmond, where there is an insane ward. The boy is said to have been in the habit of smoking about twenty-five cigarettes a day.

He could not be broken of the habit in the home and his condition became such that he had to be removed.

HOPE TO FIND MURDERERS.

World's Work in Mc-Aluliffe Case Commended.

WANT MYSTERY SOLVED.

Unanimous Resolution Urges Perseverance in Effort to Solve the Mystery.

Recognition and encouragement for The World's insistence on a solution of the McAuliffe murder mystery has come from the City Committee of the Citizens' Union.

At its regular monthly meeting, the Committee expressed by resolution its indorsement of The World's course and its hope that the paper would persevere in its investigation until the person or persons guilty of the crime of McAuliffe's death were brought to justice.

Men prominent in the public affairs of the five boroughs were at the committee meeting. R. Fulton Cutting sided. Soon after the meeting had been called to order by Francis C. Huntington, Chairman of the Executive Committee, offered this resolution:

"Resolved, That we, the City Committee of the Citizens' Union, commend the course of The New York World in its persistent effort to solve the mystery surrounding the murder of James McAuliffe, and that we hope it will persevere until it shall have succeeded in fastening the guilt upon whomsoever committed the crime."

The resolution came as a surprise, as it had not been under consideration in advance as a part of the committee's business. There was no adverse discussion, however, and after a general and informal expression of approval Mr. Cutting put the resolution and it was unanimously adopted.

DOCTORS INDORSE SWAMP-ROOT.

To Prove What Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney, Liver or Bladder Remedy, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of The World May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

East Atlanta, Ga., March 1, 1901.

DR. KILMER & CO., Binghamton, N. Y. GENTLEMEN:—While it has never been my habit or inclination to recommend remedies the ingredients of which are not all known to me, it seems as if I should make an exception in the case of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. My experience, so far as I have tested it in my practice, forces me to the conclusion that it is a remedy of the greatest value in all kidney, liver, bladder and other inflammatory conditions of the genito-urinary tract. I now take pleasure in prescribing Swamp-Root in all such cases with a feeling of assurance that my patients will derive great benefit from its use. I shall continue to prescribe it in other cases in my practice with the expectation of good results.

Very truly yours, A. J. H. Blair, M.D.

GENTLEMEN:—I have prescribed that wonderful remedy for kidney complaint, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, with most beneficial effect and know of many cures by its use. These patients had kidney trouble, as diagnosed by other physicians, and treated without benefit. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root effected a cure. I am a liberal man and accept a specific wherever I find it, in an accepted school or out of it. For desperate cases of kidney complaint, under treatment with unsatisfactory results, I turn to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root with most flattering results. I shall continue to prescribe it, and from personal observation state that Swamp-Root has great curative properties.

Truly yours, S. Benton Smith, M.D.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is used in the leading hospitals, recommended by physicians in their private practice and is taken by doctors themselves who have kidney ailments, because they recognize in it the greatest and most successful remedy for kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

SPECIAL NOTE:—If you have the slightest symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble, or if there is a trace of it in your family history, send at once to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who will gladly send you by mail, immediately, without cost to you, a sample bottle of Swamp-Root and a book telling all about Swamp-Root and containing many of the thousands of testimonials received from men and women.

In writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, be sure to say that you read this generous offer in the New York Evening World.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

HUSBAND OF 21 SUES WIFE OF 50.

THREE MONTHS TO PERFECT DIVORCE.

SAYS HE LIVED WITH HER ONLY TWO DAYS.

ASSEMBLY PASSES TIME-LIMIT BILL.

Asks Divorce and Restitution of His Clothes, Which He Says She Holds.

Seeks to Prevent Hasty Marriages After Decrees Annulling Bonds.

(Special to The Evening World.) ALBANY, March 25.—Senator Elsborg's bill, providing that three months must elapse before judgments in divorce cases become fully operative, passed the Assembly to-day without a dissenting vote.

This is the bill introduced to carry out Gov. Odell's recommendations in his annual message. An amendment was inserted last week stipulating that no alimony shall be paid during the interim between preliminary and final judgment.

The principal argument that has been made in favor of the bill is that it will prevent "fly-by-night" marriages. Instances were cited in debate where divorces left a court-room at noon and were remarried in time for dinner.

Love's young dream turned out to be an awful nightmare for Jacob Bernstein, according to the complaint filed by Alfred B. Jaworower in his suit for absolute divorce from his wife, Rebecca, to-day.

Jacob says he is only twenty-one years old, but that on March 12 Rebecca, aged fifty years, led him to an Alderman at the City Hall and married him out of hand.

She fixed up a home in Clinton street, but the happy bridegroom enjoyed it only two days. Then, he alleges, he discovered that Rebecca had formerly lived in the Red Light district, in Allied street, and that she was still fond of Morris Holtzer, one of her old admirers.

The unhappy boy husband also waits that Rebecca has all his clothes and won't give them up.
